

SCIENCE FAIR PROJECT IDEAS

Below are some Science Project ideas from previous Science Fairs. These are just examples. You may already have a great idea of your own! Remember to pick a topic that you are really interested in and make it fun.

- Which battery lasts the longest?
- Can you make hot chocolate with cold water?
- Why do bananas go brown?
- Can cats learn?
- What colors are birds attracted to?
- Which garbage bag is the strongest?
- Which soda cleans pennies best?
- Is a dog's mouth cleaner than a human's?
- What flavor of ice cream melts the fastest?
- Is Heinz the best ketchup?
- Which apples brown the fastest?
- Will plants grow without water?
- Which food will mold the fastest?
- Can fruit produce electricity?
- What material keeps water the hottest?
- Does the time of day affect your body temperature?
- On which surface do basketballs bounce the highest?
- Does the weight of a baseball bat affect how far the ball goes when it is hit?
- Does a person's weight vary throughout the day?
- Does eye color affect how well a person sees?
- Which kind of gum keeps its flavor the longest?
- Which cereal stays the crunchiest?
- Does your sense of smell affect your sense of taste?
- How does music affect your heart rate?
- Which liquid freezes the fastest?
- Which materials are the best conductors?
- Which uses more water, a bath or a shower?
- How does a lava lamp work?
- How much juice is in your fruit?
- What type of liquid do plants prefer?
- What is the best apple preservative?
- Which drink has the most sugar?
- Does light affect the growth of plants?
- Does fruit float?
- Do some colors of M&Ms melt faster than others?
- Will kids do better on a test if they eat breakfast?
- Can grass grow without soil?
- How does a magnet work?